

Cost: R6003 pp (incl VAT)

Operations Management and & Supervision

COURSE DESCRIPTION

At the end of this 3-day course, the learner will understand the key concepts and principles that underpin operations management and supervision with respect to the OHS Function.

This course typically focuses on the principles and practices involved in managing and overseeing the OHS operation within an organization. This course is designed to equip learners with the knowledge and skills necessary to efficiently plan, control, and optimize the processes and resources that drive an OHS operations

COURSE CONTENTS

- Topic 1: Theories, concepts, and principles of strategic planning and how it applies to Occupational Health and Safety.
- Topic 2: The economics of occupational health and safety and how it impacts on the value chain.
- Topic 3: Criteria and standards for effective documentation and document control
- Topic 4: Concepts and principles of corporate governance and regulatory requirements
- Topic 5: The application of the learning and development process and cycle in Occupational Health and Safety training.
- Topic 6: Concepts and principles of change management and how to apply it in

SAQA US: 242851 (Part of SAQA 99714 Qualification)

CONTACT

training@saacosh.com
info@saacosh.com